Do this by creating a gross sales web page for the new guide, however don't include a value on that page. Instead, add various links to survey questions that ask pointed questions to aid you in assigning a worth to your ebook.

Another technique is to check out costs by making a variety of duplicate gross sales pages with different prices on every page. Be sure that your gross sales copy is strictly the similar on every web page, and includes your selling-deal with sentence. Then work out for every page the conversion ratio between visitors to your website and sales of your book. This may tell you what your optimum price is.

Finally, when you've written a book that solves a downside or presents a new method, your e-book will bring in both visitors and profits.
